The Committee Members' report 31 March 2011

The Committee Members, who are trustees for the purposes of charity law, present the statutory report with the accounts of The Bilderberg Association ("the Association") for the year ended 31 March 2011.

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out on page 9 of the attached accounts and comply with the charity's constitution, applicable laws and the principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice on "Accounting and Reporting by Charities" issued in March 2005.

GOVERNANCE, STRUCTURE AND MANAGEMENT

Governance

The Bilderberg Association is governed by its constitution which was adopted on 20 December 1976.

Structure and management

The Association is managed by a committee of not more than three but no less than two people. Any new member is appointed by the remaining members subject to confirmation from the International Steering Committee of Bilderberg meetings.

ACTIVITIES, SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES AND RELEVANT POLICIES

Specific objectives

When setting the objectives and planning the work of the charity for the year the Committee Members have given careful consideration to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit.

The objectives of the Association are to promote the study of, and public education in international affairs, economics and the social sciences with reference in particular to political, economic and social problems affecting the democratic countries of North America and Western Europe and the effects of industrialisation upon the social structures and environments of such countries.

Activities

In furtherance of these objectives the International Steering Committee organises conferences and meetings in the UK and elsewhere and disseminates the results thereof by preparing and publishing reports of such conferences and meetings and by other means.

A small secretariat (Bilderberg Meetings) based in the Netherlands carries out the administration for the International Steering Committee and the publication of the meetings' reports and the Association makes annual contributions towards this. The Association is not required to make a contribution towards the cost of the secretariat in the year in which the conference is held in the UK.

The hospitality costs of the annual meetings are the responsibility of the Steering Committee member of the host country. The Association provides funds for the conferences when they are held in the UK. Funds are also provided for the travel costs of some UK participants to attend the meetings.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

Financial review

The Association received donations of £50,000 during the year, and contributed €28,750 (approximately £23,601) towards Bilderberg meetings.

Reserves policy and future plans

The reserves of the Association at 31 March 2011 amounted to £246,757 (2010 - £227,692). The charity aims to continue to increase reserves in order to meet the considerable costs of the Annual Conference when it is next held in the UK.

The Committee Members

The Committee Members constitute trustees of the Association for the purposes of charity legislation.

The Committee Members in office during the year were as follows:

The Committee Members	Appointed
Kenneth Clarke MP
Lord Kerr of Kinlochard
Marcus Agius	(Appointed September 2011)

No member received any remuneration for services as a member of the Committee (2010 - £nil). No member had any beneficial interest in any contract with the Association during the year.

Statement of Committee Members' responsibilities

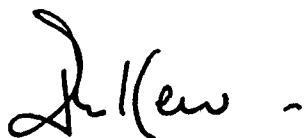

The Committee Members are responsible for preparing the Committee Members' report and accounts in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the Committee Members to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Association and of the incoming resources and application of resources of the Association for that period. In preparing these accounts, the Committee Members are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Statement of Recommended Practice (Accounting and Reporting by Charities) (the Charities' SORP);
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable United Kingdom Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts; and
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Association will continue in operation.

The Committee Members are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Association and enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Charities Act 1993, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provisions of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Association and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent auditor's report to the Committee Members of The Bilderberg Association

We have audited the financial statements of The Bilderberg Association for the year ended 31 March 2011, which comprise the statement of financial activities, the balance sheet, the principal accounting policies and the related notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

This report is made solely to the Committee Members, as a body, in accordance with Section 43 of the Charities Act 1993 and with regulations made under Section 44 of that Act. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the Committee Members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditors' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the Committee Members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of Committee Members and auditor

As explained more fully in the Committee Members' Responsibilities Statement set out in the Committee Members' Annual Report, the Committee Members are responsible for the preparation of financial statements which give a true and fair view.

We have been appointed as auditors under section 43 of the Charities Act 1993 and report in accordance with regulations made under section 44 of that Act. Our responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's (APB's) Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of: whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the charity's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed; the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the Committee Members; and the overall presentation of the financial statements. In addition, we read all the financial and non-financial information in the Committee Members' report to identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements. If we become aware of any apparent material inconsistencies we consider the implications for our report.

Independent auditors' report 31 March 2011

Opinion on the financial statements

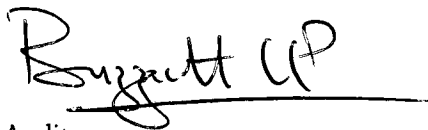

In our opinion the financial statements:

- ◆ give a true and fair view of the state of the charity's affairs as at 31 March 2011 and of its incoming resources and application of resources for the year then ended;
- ◆ have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- ◆ have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 1993.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Charities Act 1993 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- ◆ the information given in the Committee Members' Annual Report is inconsistent in any material respect with the financial statements; or
- ◆ sufficient accounting records have not been kept; or
- ◆ the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- ◆ we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Principal accounting policies 31 March 2011

Basis of accounting

The accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 1993. Applicable accounting standards and the Statement of Recommended Practice "Accounting and Reporting by Charities" (SORP 2005) have been followed in these accounts.

Incoming resources

Incoming resources are recognised in the period in which the charity is entitled to receipt and the amount can be measured with reasonable certainty.

Resources expended

Expenditure is included in the statement of financial activities when incurred and includes attributable VAT which cannot be recovered.

The costs of charitable activities comprise expenditure on the charity's primary charitable purposes as described in the Committee Members' report. Such costs include:

- ◆ Annual contributions towards the costs of Bilderberg Meetings - Netherlands; and
- ◆ Costs of conferences held in the UK.

Governance costs include expenditure on general administration and management, and on compliance with constitutional and statutory requirements.

All costs are directly attributable to specific activities.

Cash flow

The accounts do not include a cash flow statement because the Association, as a small reporting entity, is exempt from the requirement to prepare such a statement under Financial Reporting Standard 1 'Cash flow statements'.

Fund accounting

The general fund comprises those monies which may be used towards meeting the charitable objectives of the Association at the discretion of the Committee Members.
