

Syria: Conflict Without Borders

Numbers and Locations of Refugees and IDPs

In recent weeks, the upsurge of Syrians seeking asylum in European countries has overwhelmed existing capacity. According to UNHCR, as of July 2015 almost 350,000 Syrians have applied for asylum in Europe since the conflict in Syria began, nearly half applying in Germany and Sweden and one third in Serbia, Hungary, Austria, Bulgaria, and the Netherlands combined.

Total number of Syrian refugees in neighboring countries: 4,089,023

(UNHCR, August 25, 2015)

NOTE: Significant numbers of Syrian refugees who are not in camps in Turkey are in the provinces of Istanbul, Izmir, Konya, Ankara and Bursa. This population is not depicted on the map. Numbers as of March 2015 are included in the chart.
