

Intelligence Bulletin Joint FBI-DHS Bulletin

(U//FOUO) Destructive Device Found In Parked Vehicle at Times Square, New York City

2 May 2010

(U) Handling Notice: Recipients are reminded that FBI and DHS intelligence bulletins contain sensitive terrorism and counterterrorism information meant for use primarily within the law enforcement and homeland security communities. Such bulletins shall not be released in either written or oral form to the media, the general public, or other personnel who do not have a valid need-to-know without prior approval from an authorized FBI or DHS official.

(U//FOUO) Prepared by the FBI's Directorate of Intelligence, Counterterrorism Analysis Section and the DHS Domestic Threat Analysis Division, Regional Threat Analysis Branch for situational awareness. This product is intended to assist federal, state, and local government counterterrorism and law enforcement officials in understanding the nature and scope of the threat and to support identification and development of appropriate actions, priorities, and follow-on measures.

(U) Overview

(U//FOUO) At approximately 1830 hours on 1 May 2010, a sports utility vehicle (SUV) laden with a destructive device was observed parked at 45th Street and Broadway in Times Square, New York City. Eyewitness reports described the vehicle as smoking, and popping noises were heard emanating from it but no detonation occurred. Law enforcement investigation of the SUV revealed the following: three 20lb propane tanks; two five gallon gasoline canisters; one container containing a black powder material; one large, sealed, vault-like container with visible wires connecting to two analog alarm clocks; and one fuse.

(U) Connection to Terrorist Groups Unknown

(U//FOUO) Authorities are currently investigating the incident in an effort to determine any possible ties to terrorist groups, including public statements claiming responsibility. FBI and DHS will continue to work with our federal, state and local partners to obtain updated information and will provide appropriate updates as warranted.

(U//FOUO) Outlook

(U//FOUO) The FBI and DHS remain concerned that terrorist groups continue to seek innovative ways to conduct attacks and circumvent security procedures. FBI and DHS encourage reporting of suspicious activity to appropriate authorities and encourage our homeland security, military, and law enforcement partners to remain vigilant.

(U) Reporting Notice

(U) FBI and DHS encourage recipients of this document to report information concerning suspicious or criminal activity to the local FBI Joint Terrorism Task Force and the State and local fusion center. The FBI regional phone numbers can be found online at <http://www.fbi.gov/contact/fo/fo.htm>. The DHS National Operations Center (NOC) can be reached by telephone at (202) 282-9685 or by email at NOC.Fusion@dhs.gov. For information affecting the private sector and critical infrastructure, contact the National Infrastructure Coordinating Center (NICC), a sub-element of the NOC. The NICC can be reached by telephone at (202) 282-9201 or by email at NICC@dhs.gov. When available, each report submitted should include the date, time, location, type of activity, number of people and type of equipment used for the activity, the name of the submitting company or organization, and a designated point of contact.

(U) Administrative Note: Law Enforcement Response

(U//FOUO) Information contained in this intelligence bulletin is for official use only. No portion of this bulletin should be released to the media, the general public, or over nonsecure Internet servers. Release of this material could adversely affect or jeopardize investigative activities.
