

RUN FORMATION

Full Patch members in front of pack- in order of their club rank

Next - prospects or probationary member

Hang-a-rounds and supporters will be in the back of the pack

Crash truck will usually follow 1-2 miles behind. Vehicle often contains weapons and drugs for club members

Path of an Outlaw Motorcycle Gang Member

Various examples of the 1% patch.

Origination of the one percenter term arose after the 1947 Hollister biker riot. In a statement following the riot, the American Motorcyclist Association noted "...ninety-nine percent of motorcyle riders are law-abiding citizens and only one percent are outlaws."

Associations between the various 1% clubs is very fragile and often changes

Club	Supporter / Associate	Official Hang-a-round	Prospect / Probate	Full Patch	Skin Patch	Females	Club Specific
HELLSANGELS Est 1948 in Fontana, California Operate in 27 states with an estimated 92 chapters within the United States. Have additional chapters in 26 foreign countries. Membership in 2008 was confirmed at 2,800. Current worldwide membership is 2,800. Criminal activity related to members have included assault, extortion, homicide, money laundering, theft, and drug offenses. "Three people can keep a secret - if two are dead" AKA: Big Red Machine / Red and White / 81 (8+H 1=AA for HA) Rivals: HA and Mongols have had a long term dispute over use of California bottom rocker. HA and Outlaws also engaged in battles in the 1980s. Hells Angels and Outlaws involved in shooting at Sturgis rally in 2006.	No standing in club. Items usually sold at OMG events to anyone willing to pay. This includes cops, firefighters, politicians, etc.	Friend of the club. Usually offers club various services, job, etc. WHITE LETTERS-RED BACKGROUND "License Plate" instead of bottom rocker worn by prospects	Prospect period - mandatory 1 year. Must do what full patch members instruct. Can pay money to be member - have "P" on cut if paid. Prospect period normally a few months. Some members patched in just weeks.	Full patch member with full status in club. Considered life long commitment Center patch is called the "Deathhead" [New patch to avoid injunction]	Allowed after being full patch for 10 years. If out of club it will have an "out" date	Since the 1970s, the Hells Angels do not make their females wear any type of property patch. Property Of	Filthy Few = Violence for the club Dequallo = Fought officers Club Rank Chapter Disrespect to Hells Angels : rocker inside Mongol cut and upside down. If they hold rank they have small military style bars on cuts. Have a black and white design: Chapter they belong to. Memorial tabs for deceased members
MONGOLS Est 1969 in Montebello, California Until the 2008 takedown of the club by four undercover ATF Agents, who became full patched members, the Mongols were involved in a large expansion push across the United States. With the arrests of the club's leadership the membership has rapidly declined. Current membership is down to fewer than 200 members. "Honor Few, Fear None" The long term future of the Mongols is still up for debate and will rest heavily on the current federal case. Pending future plea negotiations and information obtained during these plea negotiations the Mongols future may be in question.	Support clubs will often wear colors that are reverse of the larger 1% club. These Bandito support clubs in Germany and Washington wear orange on red colors.	Sons of Silence official hang-a-round wear a plain black vest with official support cookie on front.	6 months as prospect and 6 months as probate Can start at probate status if patching over from another club only.	Center patch is called the "Mongol Raider" (Genghis Khan) Meaning of pin on back of cut is unclear. May be used as weapon or internal club symbol.	1% clubs have expanded their international presence over the past several decades. Investigators need to be aware of where these chapters are when investigating these clubs or locating members.	Property Of Proud Bandito Old Lady	13 patch Club Rank Expect No Mercy 1% patch Bandito Forever Forever Bandito Original Chapter in Texas Memorial patch Mother Chapter - Denver, Colorado
BANDIDOS Est 1966 in San Leon, Texas With nearly 2,000 members across the United States and 13 other countries, the Bandidos are one of the largest 1% clubs in the world. In the United States there are approximately 900 members in 93 chapters. They are most active in the Pacific, Southeast, and West Central regions of the United States. "God Forgives - Bandidos Don't" AKA: "Fat Mexicans" (they call their logo this as well) Rivals: Reported rivals with Hells Angels over the past few years but in most circumstances these two clubs will coexist.	Support clubs will often wear colors that are reverse of the larger 1% club. These Bandito support clubs in Germany and Washington wear orange on red colors.	Sons of Silence official hang-a-round wear a plain black vest with official support cookie on front.	6 months as prospect and 6 months as probate Can start at probate status if patching over from another club only.	Center patch is called the "Fat Mexican" Meaning of pin on back of cut is unclear. May be used as weapon or internal club symbol.	1% clubs have expanded their international presence over the past several decades. Investigators need to be aware of where these chapters are when investigating these clubs or locating members.	Property Of Proud Bandito Old Lady	13 patch Club Rank Expect No Mercy 1% patch Bandito Forever Forever Bandito Original Chapter in Texas Memorial patch Mother Chapter - Denver, Colorado
SONS OF SILENCE Est 1968 (possibly May 13, 1966 - date not verified) In the beginning of the club it had close ties to the Hells Angels but have since moved away from the HA. Tensions also increased when the HA established a Colorado presence. Overall, historically the SOS have had a good relationship with the other 1% clubs. SOS. The Sons continued to expand during the feud between the HA and Mongols developing into one of the major 1% clubs. In 1998 the Sons opened its first international chapter in Germany. The Sons have approximately 300 members in 12 states. "Until death separates us"	Support clubs will often wear colors that are reverse of the larger 1% club. These Bandito support clubs in Germany and Washington wear orange on red colors.	Sons of Silence official hang-a-round wear a plain black vest with official support cookie on front.	6 months as prospect and 6 months as probate Can start at probate status if patching over from another club only.	Center patch is called the "Loki" Meaning of pin on back of cut is unclear. May be used as weapon or internal club symbol.	1% clubs have expanded their international presence over the past several decades. Investigators need to be aware of where these chapters are when investigating these clubs or locating members.	Property Of Proud Bandito Old Lady	13 patch Club Rank Expect No Mercy 1% patch Bandito Forever Forever Bandito Original Chapter in Texas Memorial patch Mother Chapter - Denver, Colorado
VAGOS Est 1965 - San Bernardino, California By almost all accounts, the Vagos are the most rapidly expanding club in the United States. In the Southwest region it has almost tripled in numbers the past few years. This rapid expansion has led to increased tensions between the Vagos and the Hells Angels in this region. The Vagos have strong ties to Mexico which helps in its drug trafficking ability. AKA: Green Nation / Green Machine Rivals: Recent tensions have been seen between the Vagos and Hells Angels. Have supported the Mongols in the past which also caused tension with the Hells Angels.	Support clubs will often wear colors that are reverse of the larger 1% club. These Bandito support clubs in Germany and Washington wear orange on red colors.	Sons of Silence official hang-a-round wear a plain black vest with official support cookie on front.	6 months as prospect and 6 months as probate Can start at probate status if patching over from another club only.	Center patch is called the "Loki" Meaning of pin on back of cut is unclear. May be used as weapon or internal club symbol.	1% clubs have expanded their international presence over the past several decades. Investigators need to be aware of where these chapters are when investigating these clubs or locating members.	Property Of Proud Bandito Old Lady	13 patch Club Rank Expect No Mercy 1% patch Bandito Forever Forever Bandito Original Chapter in Texas Memorial patch Mother Chapter - Denver, Colorado
OUTLAWS Est 1957 (Chicago area) The Outlaws are the dominate 1% club in the Great Lakes region. Outlaws reportedly have 1,700 members in 176 chapters across the United States and 12 foreign countries. In the United States alone it has an estimated 700 members from 96 chapters in 22 states. Crimes relating to the Outlaws have included homicide, theft, explosives, drug offenses, weapons, extortion and other violent crimes. ADIOS - "Angels Die in Outlaw States"	Support clubs will often wear colors that are reverse of the larger 1% club. These Bandito support clubs in Germany and Washington wear orange on red colors.	Sons of Silence official hang-a-round wear a plain black vest with official support cookie on front.	6 months as prospect and 6 months as probate Can start at probate status if patching over from another club only.	Center patch is called the "Loki" Meaning of pin on back of cut is unclear. May be used as weapon or internal club symbol.	1% clubs have expanded their international presence over the past several decades. Investigators need to be aware of where these chapters are when investigating these clubs or locating members.	Property Of Proud Bandito Old Lady	13 patch Club Rank Expect No Mercy 1% patch Bandito Forever Forever Bandito Original Chapter in Texas Memorial patch Mother Chapter - Denver, Colorado
PAGANS Est 1959 in Prince George County, Maryland Of all the 1% OMG clubs, the Pagans have been the one club that has been tied to traditional organized crime families in New York and Philadelphia. The Pagans are a violent 1% club that has been tied to criminal activities including arson, assault, bombings, extortion, drug crimes, and murder. The Pagans currently number approximately 325-350 members from 41 chapters in 11 states. "God Forgives - Pagans Don't"	Support clubs will often wear colors that are reverse of the larger 1% club. These Bandito support clubs in Germany and Washington wear orange on red colors.	Sons of Silence official hang-a-round wear a plain black vest with official support cookie on front.	6 months as prospect and 6 months as probate Can start at probate status if patching over from another club only.	Center patch is called the "Loki" Meaning of pin on back of cut is unclear. May be used as weapon or internal club symbol.	1% clubs have expanded their international presence over the past several decades. Investigators need to be aware of where these chapters are when investigating these clubs or locating members.	Property Of Proud Bandito Old Lady	13 patch Club Rank Expect No Mercy 1% patch Bandito Forever Forever Bandito Original Chapter in Texas Memorial patch Mother Chapter - Denver, Colorado
WARLOCKS Est 1967 (Philadelphia chapter) Warlocks have two separate and distinct clubs. One is located in the Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey area and the second in the Florida / South Carolina area. Both clubs use the Warlock name but function as two separate clubs. Rivals: Warlocks have two distinct clubs - depends on location and which club you are dealing with.	Support clubs will often wear colors that are reverse of the larger 1% club. These Bandito support clubs in Germany and Washington wear orange on red colors.	Sons of Silence official hang-a-round wear a plain black vest with official support cookie on front.	6 months as prospect and 6 months as probate Can start at probate status if patching over from another club only.	Center patch is called the "Loki" Meaning of pin on back of cut is unclear. May be used as weapon or internal club symbol.	1% clubs have expanded their international presence over the past several decades. Investigators need to be aware of where these chapters are when investigating these clubs or locating members.	Property Of Proud Bandito Old Lady	13 patch Club Rank Expect No Mercy 1% patch Bandito Forever Forever Bandito Original Chapter in Texas Memorial patch Mother Chapter - Denver, Colorado